

Notice dated 25th April 1895.

Two Foreign Hindustani female mendicants whose description is given below were found this afternoon in company of one suspicious character Muhammad Sahib at Boti Market, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, offering for sale some golden pieces of Native jewellery evidently smashed for the purpose of sale. On their search, found the following:—

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Gold ring (called Pavitra used by Brahmins only) | 1 Gold screw. |
| 1 Gold ring with Nagari inscription. | 43 Small pieces of golden smashed Hindu jewellery. |
| 2 Gold plain rings. | 1 Golden wire cord. |
| 1 Gold children's wristlet (called tatoo.) | In all weighing about 9 tolas. |
| 1 Gold ring worn on Hindu infants. | 2 Silver armlets. |
| 1 Gold moya of bead necklace. | 1 Silver pendant armlet |
| 40 pieces of bead necklace. | |
| 9 Flat pieces of gold necklace. | |

In all value Rs. 200.

The above articles appeared to belong to that of some Mysore Hindus purposely smashed to disfigure the jewellery, and to effect a sale. The women cannot account for the possession of the property; they say they came from Bellary on the night of 24th April 1895 to Bangalore.

Claimants are invited to apply to the District Superintendent of Police, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.
